

Santa Fe Elementary BBL

We are so excited to be offering BBL to our students in grades 2-4! What does BBL stand for? The letters stand for Bantam Basketball League. A bantam is defined as a small, aggressive and spirited person. With that being said, we will embrace all the energy that our young players have to give, and teach them the fundamentals of the game of basketball. We will have camps and games on the following dates....

- January 8 - Camp: 6:00-7:30 pm
- January 11 - Camp: 6:00-7:30 pm
- January 12 - Games at halftime of the SFHS game
- January 16 - Camp: 6:00-7:30 pm
- January 18 - Games at halftime of the SFHS game

All camps and games will be held at Santa Fe High School in Alma and will be under the direction of the Santa Fe High School Basketball Teams. We really appreciate our high school players and coaches taking the time to work with our elementary kids. It is a great experience for both groups. If you choose to observe the camps, please do so from the spectator viewing area and let our high school players enjoy the coaching experience. BBL players must be accompanied by an adult to the games.

There is no fee for this program. BBL players will be granted free admission to the two high school games listed above. Admission for parents will be the standard admission price of $4.00 (Booster Club discounts will apply).

If you want your child to take part in this opportunity, please complete the permission form below and return no later than Thursday, January 4, 2018.

My child, _____ has permission to participate in the Santa Fe Elementary School BBL. I understand the Santa Fe R-10 School District, it's personnel, and student coaches are not liable for any accidents or injury while my child plays basketball in this program. I further understand that being a part of this group is a privilege and that my child will be expected to conduct themselves in a manner that displays Santa Fe Pride at both camps and games.
